

800 LOCAL CHILDREN VISIT

Leeds Children's Theatre

Nearly 800 boys and girls from local schools have visited the current production of "Emil and the detectives," by Erich Kaestner, by the Leeds Children's Theatre in the Civic Theatre. They are from South View Girls (107), South View Boys (180), Horsforth Woodside (50), Horsforth Featherbank (233), and Aireborough Grammar (175).

Scenery was designed and painted by Mr. Arthur Brown, of Horsforth, whose wife is honorary secretary of the Theatre. He was assisted by Janet Rawlins, of Horsforth, who is a member of Otley Arts Club.
