

Stage a station

The stage of the Leeds Civic Theatre is to be converted into Charing Cross Station for the production of "Emil and the Detectives" by Leeds Arts Centre Children's Theatre Group next Friday night. Stage manager Arthur Brown, a master at Aireborough Grammar School, has been responsible for the transformation, and there is even a "train" for effect.

Emil is played by Leslie Burns, of Leeds Modern School. The cast of 60 includes 30 children.
