

Leeds Arts Centre present

THE ACCRINGTON PALS

by Peter Whelan

Wed. 2nd - Sat. 5th November 2011

directed by
Maria Kwater

Imagine that all the young men from down your street went off to fight...and never came back....

Accrington, in East Lancashire, was the smallest British town to organise the raising of a full battalion sent to the First World War...

'The Accrington Pals' tells the story of some of the men going to fight, and of their sweethearts and families left behind to cope without them.

The Carriageworks Millennium Square
Leeds LS2 3AD

7:30pm start (main auditorium)

Box Office: 0113 224 3801

Tickets: £10.00 (concessions: £7.00)

The Carriageworks is located above the Ha! Ha! Bar in the new Electric Press development on Millennium Square, just off Great George Street in Leeds City Centre.

Access to the theatre is by the main glass door located on Millennium Square between the Ha! Ha! Bar and Revolution.

The building can also be accessed through the Electric Press courtyard on Great George Street.

