Leeds Arts Centre Presents...

The Flint Street Nativity

by Tim Firth & Directed by Ben Hopwood

Mizzis Horrocks' class of seven year olds is about to perform their nativity at Flint Street Junior School for the proud mums and dads and the occasional social worker. Squabbles arise when Gabriel wants to play Mary, the star grumbles hes not a proper star like they have at NASA, Herod won't stop waving at his parents and the subversive innkeeper is determined to liven up the traditional script.

And then the class pet escapes...

Leeds Arts Centre is an amateur drama group formed in 1945. We present a wide variety of plays at the Carriageworks Theatre on Millennium Square in Leeds. We are proud members of LeedsCAN (Leeds Community Arts Network), formerly the Leeds Civic Arts Guild, a group of amateur theatre, musical, fine arts and opera companies based around the city. New members are always welcome!

This amateur production of The Flint Street Nativity is presented by special arrangement with Samuel French Ltd.
