Winner of the Laurence Olivier Award for Best Comedy!

The Writer

Playwright Shelagh Stephenson has been called "a mistress of comic anguish" and this play is a perfect example of her gift for tears, laughter and a kind of bruised poetry. No wonder this play won the Laurence Olivier Award for Best Comedy in 2000.

The Play

It's the captivating and hilarious tale of three sisters who return to the family home for their widowed mother's funeral. The shadow of the past haunts them as they try to come to terms with their memories, their relationships - and each other.

Witty and heart-breaking in turn, it's a family story that anyone can relate to.

The Theatre

The Carriageworks is located above the Ha! Ha! Bar in the new Electric Press development on Millennium Square, just off Great George Street in Leeds City Centre.

Access to the theatre is by the main glass door located on Millennium Square between the Ha! Ha! Bar and Revolution.

The building can also be accessed through the Electric Press courtyard on Great George Street.

The map below shows where we are.
