

Weds 20 - Sat 23 June 2007 7.45pm

BOX OFFICE: 0113 224 3801

Upstairs@The Carriageworks

Millennium Square, Leeds LS2 3AD

Tickets £7 (unreserved seating)

Groups of 10+ £5

www.leedsartscentre.org.uk

Reg. Charity No. HS503872R

Emma is married to Robert.
Jerry is Robert's best friend.
Emma is sleeping with Jerry.

Pinter's masterful emotional thriller

BETRAYAL

Beginning some time after the affair has ended, Betrayal explores the relationships between Emma, Robert and Jerry over the last 10 years.

These three friends have betrayed each other over and over again. Nothing is sacred; friendship, marriage and professional relationships are put on the line in one of Pinter's most compelling plays.

This production takes place Upstairs@
The Carriageworks. Please see map for location. There is limited on street parking in the area.