Are you coming to Dinner?

There's plenty on offer: an eclectic guest list, an outrageous menu and lashings of alcohol, for starters! Not to mention a mysterious waiter, an uninvited guest and discourse on art and literature, science and nature, entertainment and politics.

In the main, Buffini's delicious, satirical black comedy serves up a smorgasbord of vengeance, passion and deceit plated up in generous helpings in our hostess Paige's pursuit of the dinner from hell.

Will Paige's dishing out of just desserts prove fruitless, or can she have her cake and eat it...?

Join us to see whether revenge is a dish best served cold.
