Hamlet

By William Shakespeare

Directed by Ken Taylor

Carriageworks Theatre, Millennium Square, Leeds
Thursday 7th to Saturday 9th February 2019 @ 7.15pm

Hamlet is rightly labelled Shakespeare's greatest tragedy. It is the story of a man who finds his world shattered by the sudden death of his father and the hasty marriage of his mother to his father's brother.

As well as being great literature, this is the very human story of a family torn apart by tragedy. Add to that the appearance of a ghost and the revelation of a murder, and the stage is set for a thrilling and engaging play.

Leeds Arts Centre, an RSC Open Stages company, has assembled a cast of over twenty actors for this excellent production. Whether a Shakespeare fan, or new to 'The Bard', this play is unmissable!
