Oleanna

John, a professor trying to make tenure, and his student, Carol, sit down to discuss her grades and in a terrifyingly short time become the participants in a battle for justice, where the lines between right and wrong are open to interpretation.

Innocuous remarks and actions turn damning as the relationship between a somewhat fatuous teacher and his seemingly hapless pupil become an examination of the mechanisms of power, censorship, and the nature of abuse.

Whose side are you on?
