

Leeds Arts Centre presents Arthur Miller's masterpiece

The Crucible

directed by Martin Key

"The Devil came to me and bid me serve him"

Salem Massachusetts

1692

A Puritan Community is in the grip of witchcraft hysteria. As neighbour accuses neighbour and execution threatens young and old, one man, John Proctor holds the key to the truth, but if he speaks out, he'll also reveal a shameful secret about himself.

Arthur Miller's twentieth century masterpiece is a compelling courtroom drama, an absorbing human story and a brilliant enactment of political witch-hunts then and now.
