

LEEDS ARTS CENTRE

NEWSLETTER No. 9.

April, 1986.

J.B. Priestley's "THE LINDEN TREE" is the penultimate production of the Leeds Arts Centre's 41st Season. The action of the play takes place in a Northern provincial town just after the Second World War and revolves round a family gathering to celebrate Father's 65th Birthday but as you will see, there is a little more to it than that. We hope you enjoy this study of human nature at a critical point in the Linden family history.

Well now....whilst some of us have been rehearsing "The Linden Tree" steadily since early March, others have commenced the annual Centre wardrobe tidy-up. Also in March our Green Room Productions presented two one-act Chekhov plays, much enjoyed by an appreciative audience of Centre Members and friends, together with a sprinkling of prospective new members. Have you ever thought about Amateur Dramatics as a hobby? Why not have a word with our Box Office or Front of House Managers, who knows, you may be treading the Civic Theatre boards in our coming season.

Talking of our coming Season, we have just about finalised our FIVE productions for 1986/87 which include a Shakespeare in October and a children's production for Christmas, so keep tuned for further details or even better, why not add your name to our Mailing List at the Box Office.

What with the Jumble Sale on the Saturday 10th May (not 24th May as stated in the last Newsletter), at St. Columba's Church, Headingley (2 p.m.), and rehearsals for "HENRY THE NINTH" our musical finale to the Season starting immediately the present production finishes, we are not exactly going to be 'twiddling our thumbs'.

Do join us again for "HENRY THE NINTH" commencing Tuesday 24th June until Saturday 28th June at 7.30 p.m.

LEEDS ARTS CENTRE at the CIVIC THEATRE

1986/87 SEASON

Don't miss our exciting programme next season when Leeds Arts Centre plan to present:

PERICLES, PRINCE OF TYRE by William Shakespeare 7 - 11 October 1986

A rare opportunity to see this 'much admired play' which was formerly one of Shakespeare's most popular works.

THE MEG AND MOG SHOW by David Wood 9 - 13 December 1986

The enchanting characters of the Meg and Mog books by Helen Nicoll and Jan Pieńkowski magically brought to life on the stage. A 'must' for children of all ages!

MURDER IN THE CATHEDRAL by T. S. Eliot 17 - 21 February 1987

A powerful and moving drama about Thomas à Becket.

BLITHE SPIRIT by Noel Coward 14 - 18 April 1987

Coward at his brilliant best! A delightful comedy to start the Spring!

A CHORUS OF DISAPPROVAL by Alan Ayckbourn 23 - 27 June 1987

The hilarious tale of an amateur dramatic society's production of The Beggars' Opera.

You can make a provisional booking at the Box Office NOW or add your name and address to our mailing list and we will send you a reminder and booking form at the start of next season.

Simply complete the tear-off slip below and hand it in to the Box Office this evening.

NAME TEL.NO:

ADDRESS
.....

Please add my name to your mailing list so that I can receive details of your future productions. Please tick if required

I should like to make a provisional booking of seats for:

(Title of Play)..... on (date).....